1. Montgomery and Montgomery (10616)--Class A. "The Twelve Months of New Orleans, a Set of 12 Romantic Lithographic Prints in Color." Ask if all copies published bore copyright notice. If so, Al application and two dollar fee should be filed. Suggest better form of notice for future works of this character.
2. Conlin, Bernard P. (4557)--Class E. "That's a Million Dollar Word, R lax." Statement of new matter given in application received February 9, 1940 as: New music with 40 bars instead of 24 bars as in original song under same title, a new first verse, second verse much the same as of old. Statement of new musical composition sufficient. Enter.
3. International News Service (6956)--Class A. "Senator Borah Viewed as a Humanitarian" in "Times-Herald," January 22, 1940, and 5 others. Notice of copyright under title reads:
By William K. Hutchinson
(Copyright, 1940)
If Mr. Hutchinson requests registration in his name as actual owner of the copyright, accept applications giving his name in line (1).
4. Ross, E. J. (5615)--"Tournament of Roses, 1940."--Class A. Two names given in copyright notice, accompanied by application giving the name of only one of the copyright proprietors. 6. Duras, Victor Hugo (No Fee)--Class A. "Life--The Divine Science of Life, Humanity the Soul of God..." Over six months has elapsed since the date of publication. Ad interim copyright would have expired by this time. Application can be filed, if desired, but apparently no purpose would be served by this action. Absence of response to Copyright Office communication of September 13 resulted in the copy being transferred to the Library of Congress.
7. S.T.A. Publishing Co. (5309)--Class E. "You Were Mine From the Start." Division of opinion as to whether application giving full name of copyright owner should be accepted, although at variance with notice which gives only certain initials. Note--new application giving all names filed upon request of Office. Appeal. Enter using application received 2/15/40-HAH (See "Music")
8. Glover, M. L. (11080)--Class A. "Rust and Allied Families." "Prepared and Privately Published for Eunice Plunkett Mesmer by The Lynchburg Engraving Company" is merely a statement of printing, and is not believed to indicate any authorship on the part of The Lynchburg Engraving Co., who were employees for hire.

Minutes of the Revisory Board, February 23, 1940, page 2.

9. Amerika-Institut (Trust)--Class A. "Frag Kultur-Kunst-Geschichte"
Notice of copyright reads: Copyright 1935 by Verlag Georg D. W.
Callwey. Work was published October 20, 1939. Enter. Effect of publishing work with 1935 year date may possibly shorten the total period of copyright protection by four years.
10. Bowman Deutz Cummings, Inc. (3851)--Class A. "You Can't Imagine Hawaii" in January 15, 1940 issue of "Vogue." Reject. First published in 1939 with year date 1940 in notice of copyright. Subsequent reprint in 1940 in "Vogue" will not permit registration.
11. Krulik, Bertha (8200)--Class E. (No title). Applicant gives statement of domicile in application as N.Y., N.Y. and his address as Evansville, Indiana. Application filed is result of correspondence. Division of opinion as to whether further correspondence should be conducted on the subject of domicile. Appeal. Enter HAH (See "Domicile")
12. American Gentleman Publishing Corp. (7825)--Class A. "The American Gentleman Fashions Spring and Summer 1940 (and color Plates)."
"Fashion Wall Plates" published with adequate copyright notice, also appear in catalogue published on same date with inadequate notice-- is registration in order for the "Wall Plates."? Appeal. Enter "Wall Plates"
Reject Book (See "Notice")
13. Consumers National Federation (4992)--Class A. "Prices and Products Bulletin No. 3." Division of opinion as to whether there has been a proper statement of citizenship. Appeal. Write possibly employer for hire-HAH (See "CITIZENSHIP")
